Dmitry Globin

Golang developer

About me

My name is Dmitry Globin. I am a 3rd year student at MIPT. Now I work as a Golang-developer in Cyberprotect company. My experience of working with Go is one year. Before that I had experience in writing projects in C and Python. I also had experience working with ML, writing a project using NLP model. I like to learn new things, I learn quickly. On the one hand, I am independent in my work, on the other hand, I like to work in a team and interact with colleagues.
